

1 About this Notice

This notice explains what personal data (information) we hold about you, how we collect it, and how we use and may share information about you during the application process. We are required to notify you of this information under data protection legislation. Please ensure that you read this notice (sometimes referred to as a 'privacy notice') and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

2 Who Collects the Information

Smeg UK Limited ('Company') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you.

3 Data Protection Principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our HR.POL.Privacy Policy – Employee and Job Applicant Data.

4 What Information we Collect and Hold

We may collect the following information up to and including the shortlisting stage of the recruitment process:

- Your name and contact details (i.e. address, home and mobile phone numbers, email address);
- Details of your qualifications, experience, employment history (including job titles, salary and working hours) and interests;
- Information regarding any criminal record;
- Details of your referees;

We may collect the following information after the shortlisting stage, and before making a final decision to recruit:

- Information about your previous academic and/or employment history, including details of any conduct, grievance or performance issues, appraisals, time and attendance, from references obtained about you from previous employers and/or education providers;
- Information regarding your academic and professional qualifications;
- Your nationality and immigration status and information from related documents, such as your passport or other identification and immigration information;
- A copy of your passport and driving licence.

You are required (by law or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide certain categories of information above to us to enable us to verify your right to work and suitability for the position.

5 How we Collect the Information

We may collect this information from you, your referees (details of whom you will have provided), your education provider, the relevant professional body, the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and the Home Office.

6 Why we Collect the Information and how we use it

We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes:

- to take steps to enter into a contract with you;
- for compliance with a legal obligation (e.g. our obligation to check that you are eligible to work in the United Kingdom);
- for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest; and
- for the purposes of our legitimate interests, but only if these are not overridden by your interests, rights or freedoms.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

7 How we may Share the Information

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as HR consultants and professional advisers. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

We may also be required to share some personal information as required to comply with the law.

8 Sensitive Personal Information and Criminal Records Information

We collect sensitive personal information for equality monitoring purposes in our recruitment practices. Our legal basis for collecting this information is consent or our legitimate business interests as appropriate, and processing is necessary for the purposes of exercising the employment law rights or obligations of the Company.

9 Where Information may be Held

Information may be held at our offices, and third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above.

Information will be shared with other Smeg Group companies and also internationally to other countries around the world, some of which do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in the UK.

We have security measures in place to seek to ensure that there is appropriate security for information we hold.

10 How Long we Keep your Information

We keep the personal information that we obtain about you during the recruitment process for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. How long we keep your information will depend on whether your application is successful (and you become employed by us), the nature of the information concerned and the purposes for which it is processed.

We will keep recruitment information (including interview notes) for no longer than is reasonable, taking into account the limitation periods for potential claims such as race or sex discrimination (as extended to take account of early conciliation), after which they will be destroyed. If there is a clear business reason for keeping recruitment records for longer than the recruitment period, we may do so but will first consider whether the records can be pseudonymised, and the longer period for which they will be kept.

If your application is successful, we will keep only the recruitment information that is necessary in relation to your employment.

11 Keeping your Personal Information Secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally

12 How to Complain

We hope that the HR Director can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. If not, contact the Information Commissioner at ico.org.uk/concerns/ or telephone: 0303 123 1113 for further information about your rights and how to make a formal complaint.
